

Inquiry Based Learning

~ Gender issues ~

Problem setting

What we can do to reduce prejudice against sexual minorities?

Hypothesis

If everyone could understand gender issues from the perspective of sexual minorities, discrimination against them would decrease.

Learn

Consider

Learn

○ Learning first-hand about the discrimination against sexual minorities.

Consider

○ To think
“If I were a sexual minority...”

Video production

- Pro.Ishikawa
- Two university seniors from the University of Kitakyushu
- Kitakyushu Municipal Gender Equality Center Move
- Write scripts → Make storyboard → shooting → editing

What was important to us

- Use our unique perspective
- Change the scenario of coming out as a sexual minority

Questionnaire results

- Survey Result
 - Q. How did your opinion change?
 - I want to learn more
 - I will respect other's feelings
 - I'm not sure how to talk about gender issues
 - I will be more careful about my word choices

Through this activity

- We should treat everyone in the way that is best for them
- Social systems in Japan are changing, but people's awareness is still low

Future prospects

To get more people to watch our video...

Scheduled to be aired on campus during
Human Rights Week in December