

INTERCULTURAL BUFFET PARTY

~ to make a connection between Japanese and Foreigners ~

CURRENT SITUATION

Foreigners who live in Japan are increasing. Neighborhood disputes are also on the rise. The number of foreign residents in Japan is approximately 8.59 million.

SUGGESTION

We propose

“ INTERCULTURAL BUFFET PARTY “

Please follow these simple 4 steps :

- ① Preparing dishes from various countries
- ② Describe the dish
- ③ Dining while discussing the cuisine and culture
- ④ Deepening mutual cultural understanding

EVENT DETAILS

- Date
November 13
- Location
Home Economics Kitchen
- Participants
4 ALT teachers
• 3 United States 🇺🇸
• 1 United Kingdom 🇬🇧
- 4 students
- 1 teacher

EVENT PRACTICE

- United States : Peanut butter cookies
 - United Kingdom : Roast
 - Italy : Macaroons
 - Iran : Kotlet
 - Japan : Chirashi sushi Dagashi
- The party lasted for about four hours. We talked at length about culture, food, and so on.

PROPOSALS

Your school can do it too!
We propose events that deepen cultural mutual understanding!

- Home Economics × English
Let's cook international dishes with the ALT!
- Guess which country's sweets and dishes these are!

Let's all have fun learning about culture!

CONCLUSION

Mutual cultural understanding is essential for eliminating conflicts between foreigners and Japanese people. We believe food can be a great conversation starter.

Let's build a society where we can accept one another together through Japan's “OMOTENASHI” culture.
